b. Logistics Officer, was presented with a Special Achievement Award for her exceptional performance for her work while assigned to the the Equipment Management Section, Operations Support Division, OTS, during the period October 1985 to October 1987. Judy was commended for her "can do" attitude and her ability to undertake and successfully complete any task from supervising night moves to procuring support items for the staff. She consistently made an extra effort to provide the best possible service in a courteous and professional manner.

The performance of these six employees further emphasizes the importance of effective team work among OL personnel and the value of their support to the success of the Agency's mission. They are all collectively a credit to OL!

- 2. Copies of the Employee Benefits Survey have been mailed to all employees at Headquarters locations, and the return rate is quite impressive. Because employees may have changed jobs since the survey labels were printed, it is possible that certain Headquarters-area employees may not have received a copy of the survey at their latest address. If you have not received your copy, please contact OL/Personnel and Training Staff
- 3. The OL relocation of the Map Services Center, Office of Information Resources (OIR),

6. In anticipation of the 8 January snow storm, the Motor Pool, FMD, implemented its snow emergency plan at the close of business 7 January and was able to meet all of the transportation requirements the following day. Seven couriers reported to work on 8 January and made essential deliveries and pickups to the Departments of State, Treasury, the Executive Office Building and to the Pentagon. The Ag cy's appreciation is extended to all OL employees involved in this effort. A job well done!

7. The 'Secretary of the Year' award is a highly visible 'Thank You' to the indispensable cadre of Agency personnel in the secretarial field. Although only a small percentage of these individuals are honored each year, a nomination for this award is a unique way for supervisors to show their appreciation for superior performance. This year's deadline is 18 January. Contact the Personnel and Training Staff/OL on for details.

8. The Office of Personnel announced that the January Career Training class consists of employees. Participants
